

Driveway from Norfolk to Jamestown Exposition.

One of the objects of international expositions abroad has been to leave permanent memorial of the celebration. This is especially true of the French World's Fair. The Trocadero Palace, the Hall of Industry and the Alexander Bridge will stand for centuries as memorials of the several expositions which created them.

A far less spectacular, and yet perhaps more valuable reminder will be left after the Jamestown Exposition has passed into history. The South has not been noted for good roadways; on the contrary, it has gained an unenviable fame by its maintenance of bad roads. In connection with the Ter-Centennial the city and county of Norfolk will combine forces and will construct a model boulevard linking Norfolk with the Exposition.

To the limits of the city the avenue will be asphalted. The six mile stretch from the city limits to the Exposition grounds will be an example of the most approved methods of macadam road building.

The boulevard will be one hundred and twenty-five feet wide. There will be room for a double track electric car line in the center, and broad spaces on either side. It will traverse a very picturesque route alongside and over streams and through numberless small groves. The rights of way have been secured for the entire stretch, and the route selected is one preferred by the Engineer of the Good Roads Bureau of the Department of Agriculture, at Washington.

Automobiles may travel from Norfolk to the Exposition Grounds in twenty minutes with ease, and observe the restrictions regarding speed. The electric car will take no longer, and on such a perfect roadway vehicles drawn by horses will make excellent time.

Important Ruling by the Post-office Department.

An Important piece of news is taken from the Postmaster's Magazine, and is as follows:

Hereafter the "opened by mistake" excuse will be a mistake that will cost $200. The postoffice department has ruled that mail must be looked over before leaving the office, and that any letter put in your box by mistake must be returned before leaving the postoffice under a penalty of $200 for failure to do so.

THE SMILE

that won't come off, appears on baby's face after one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, the great worm medicine. Why not keep that smile on baby's face. If you keep this medicine on hand, you will never see anything else but smiles on his face. Mrs. S. Blackwell, Okla., writes: "My baby was peevish and fretful. Would not eat and I feared he would die. I used a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and he has not had a sick day since."

Mrs. Mary P. Fuqua Died Last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Pleasant Fuqua, mother of Mr. J. E. Fuqua and Mrs. A. M. DeBow died at the home of the latter last Saturday morning. The funeral occurred Sunday morning from the Methodist Church where the last sad rites were conducted by Rev. W. G. Hefley, former pastor of the Hickman Methodist Church, but now of Fulton.

Mrs. Fuqua was a native of Chesterfield county Virginia. She came to Kentucky in 1853 where she has since lived. She was 88 years old at the time of her death, and has been an invalid for several years, having been confined to her bed for the past eighteen months.

The deceased is survived by three brothers and one sister, who reside in Lynchburg, Va., and one son, James Fuqua, and one daughter, Mrs. DeBow. Mrs. Fuqua possessed a beautiful character, had for many many years lived a consistent member of the Methodist Church, and held the esteemed love of all who knew her. She was the grandmother of Mrs. P. H. Weeks of Fulton.

Obituary.

Robert Edward Fields, aged 23, died July 5 1906, of that dreaded disease consumption. He suffered long but endured his suffering with much patience, he was of a kind disposition and a true friend to all, and said that he was not afraid to die. Weep not dear brother and sister for we feel that he has gone home to God and is waiting to greet you on the other shore, free from all and suffering.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard to speak the word,
We must forever part.

Dearest loved one we must lay thee
In the peaceful graves embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy heavenly face.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber
Peaceful in thy grave so low
Thou no more will join our number
Thou no more our sorrows know.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled
And in Heaven with joy to greet thee

Where no farewell tears are shed.

ONE THAT LOVED HIM

One Negro Shoots Another at Paperwood Camp.

John Ross, a negro, was shot Monday at the Southern Wood Supply Co's., paperwood camp, above Hickman, by another negro named Sam Johnson. The particulars of the shooting are not known, except that the negroes were about a mile from the camp when a shot was heard, and later Ross was found with a bullet hole through him, the ball entering the back and lodging in the stomach. Johnson, it is claimed had but a short time ago shot another negro accidentally, and had never been arrested. An effort is being made to locate Johnson.

Ross was brought to Hickman and the wound dressed by Dr. Overby, the colored doctor, and at last account was still living but in a precarious condition.

It makes us very tired, indeed, to have merchants insist on us to urge the people to trade at home and not send away to mail order houses or big city stores for their goods, and when we go around to settle our accounts have presented to us a bill head printed away from home or receive copy for an ad written on a letter head which never "trade at home." Yes, we believe in it, but those who cry out so loud and persistently should certainly be first to set the example.

The band boys went to Hickman Wednesday to play for the celebration at that place and report a nice time. They are high in praise of the treatment accorded them at the hands of the people of Hickman and say that no more enjoyable occasion could have been had at any place.—Gleason Headlight.

SOUTHWEST

The Land of BIG CROPS and PROSPERITY.

Are you making as much off your farm as you ought? No doubt you are making all you can. The trouble is the land costs too much. It takes too much money to buy a big farm, and so you are trying to make a living on a small farm, or perhaps you are renting one and paying a good share of what you raise, in rent. Wouldn't it be better to go where the price of good land is so little that you can own a big farm—where every acre of the ground is working for you and all you raise is paying you good profits?

There are thousands of acres of fertile land in the Southwest along the line of the Cotton Belt Route that can be bought for from $3 to $10 an acre. This land is increasing in value each year.

See the Southwest at Small Cost.

A trip to the Southwest would convince you that your best interests lay in settling there. The trip can be made at a very little expense. On the first and third Tuesdays of each month you can purchase a round trip ticket to any point in the Southwest on or via the Cotton Belt Route at very low rates. Stop-overs will be allowed for you to examine any locality you are interested in.

Write at once for free copies of books describing this wonderful country and for full information about cost of tickets, etc.
